“ His smile lit up a room and his laughter was truly contagious, I will never forget the time we all stood around the stand up at the restaurant early on a Sunday afternoon recouping from the night before with some old hair of the dog and in walk a Priest and a few Nuns , the Priest commented ,I didn't see you gentlemen in Church this morning, Michael without pause said Father this is our Church and what we need today is for the Jets to cover the spread so could we get a little prayer for that to happen, we all cracked up laughing so hard we cried including the Priest and the Nuns . That was my Dear Friend Michel always making people laugh, he was one of a kind and my deepest condolences go out to Dana , Ashley and Jimmy ... Love you all !!!

“ My heart is hurting for the entire Seros family. I'm deeply sorry for your loss. One of my favorite memories of him (and this memory happened MANY times) was when I used to babysit Dimitri and Philip and everyone would come back late from the restaurant. I made them sandwiches, would listen to all their music with them, (which made me love that great music now) and just laugh at how funny they were together. Good times. He will always be known to me as the guy who gave everyone nicknames, was the life of the party, and just a great human. My condolences to all of you. ❤️

“ I will never forget the time Michael nicknamed me Robinisco, we were joking around, from that day on, or he would call me Rob, How ya doing, Robinsco? Hey Rob, then it would be one joke after another, we would laugh and smile. I miss you buddy!! Heaven is getting a good angel, making God laugh up there with your humor, and golfing, watching sports on the tv, and yelling at the tv about the coaching, I miss those memories with ya buddy. May you rest in peace my brother Michael
