“ The loss of your 96 yo father is the end of an era as he was the last uncle standing. His passing so close to Easter brings back memories of gatherings at Grams house. Easter started for the eight brothers-in-law with a pre-Lenten weigh-in and a wager placed on who would lose the most weight during Lent. Easter Sunday the scale was out, weights recorded and winner declared. Then dinner was served and all that lost weight regained. A wonderful dinner prepped and served by the ladies and clean-up and dishes washed by the men. Afterwards were card games and uncle Johnny was always Mr, Lucky. Johnny knew how to party hard and to work hard. He was always willing to give a helping hand when needed and many gratefully benefitted from his assistance.

He will be missed.

I will miss seeing the twinkle that was always in his eyes.

My Deepest Sympathy to Michelle, Kathy, Linda and their Families

Love, Marilyn Carlson

“ Uncle Johnny has always been very special to us. When I was little I couldn't wait to come over to his house. There was always a lot of fun and excitement when we came over. He always had special names for his daughters. He called them Shelly, Cassy and Lulu 🥰🥰🥰. He always loved to get together for family gatherings. The last time I saw him was in 2008. I brought my parents over to Aunt Bea's. He rushed over with Aunt Ella so we could all go out to eat and just be together. He came to my communion and graduation parties. He did not come to our wedding. He had a bad accident doing roofing. We were all praying for him at that time. We have had so many memories that we shared together as I was growing up. He will always be in our heart❤️ Love you, Dennis and Shirley Hall
