“"Dear D' Alessandro family,I got to know Olindo after I met Christina when working with them to manage a community called Brookside Villas he built. It was such a pleasure not only getting to see how he operated in love of his work, but how kind he was when dealing with people. He always gave a kind word, was on top of every aspect of his trade. I remember when they were so happy to have us take over the manage of the community, they took my wife and I to dinner in Troy, what a feast. As any one knows, you cannot leave a European family hunger. I want your family to know I am praying God gives you all peace and joy knowing he is with his Maker. I will always remember Olinda for his kindness, caring and loving to all he was around. Rest in peace and peace to the entire family."

“"I had the pleasure of knowing Olindo for only a few short years. (High school and a few years after), but in that short time, I dont think I can say I knew anyone with more love and compassion for the people around him. I used to laugh, boy I used to laugh, I would come pick up Nick (Bardyga) and he would be out front. Nick would say bye with one of those weird only Nick comments after the actual phrase and he would always say nick you no get in trouble Nick would reply relax Olindo then Olindo would say yeah yeah you always tell me relax, at least you with mike. I loved that guy and all he represented. Now being a father of 4, his Demeanor, his kind heart, and his love for his family is something I hope I can emulate myself in the years to come. Rest easy Olindo you deserve it"

“ "Dear D'Allesandro Family- John, Frank,Michael & Julie, It seems now a days we do not come across men like our fathers were. Your father was so special and one of a kind just like Augie was. Never wanting to face the day that would come when they would leave us here on earth because we know that things would never be the same! Cherish all those beautiful memories. Our hearts & prayers go out to all of you because we know the same heartache . May God Bless you to give you strength and support that you need at this time. Our deepest sympathy. All our love, Joe & Lisa Biondo"

“ "Kindness is defined as the quality of being friendly, generous, and considerate. Affection, gentleness, warmth, concern, and care are words that are associated with kindness. Being kind often requires courage and strength which reminds us of Uncle Olindo. What an amazing man. Much love to his family who was truly blessed!!!"
