“ Paul was a man I wish I had known for more years than I got. I only knew Paul for about ten years but what a wonderful ten years it was and be friends. We played bridge together, had dinners and attended some plays with he and Barb. What a bundle of energy Paul was almost to the end. Always quick with a joke or quip. I will surely miss that smile and the twinkle in his eye when he tried to pull a fast one over on me. A wonderful Catholic man and a warrior for Christ is the way I will always remember Paul. May he rest in peace in the arms of our savior.
