“ Paula was one of the most happy and positive woman I knew. She was so emphatic and would boost you up with her beautiful words of comfort. She was so funny. One time when she had her store she couldn't find her keys to iclouse up. Don came and Paula said she looked EVERYWHERE except the dumpster in case they accidentally were tossed. Don git into the dumpster....Paula found them in her coat pocket. Ha. He lthey had a love story like no other. They gave such good laughs!!

“ I will never forget the sweetness of Cindy Burns Mom as she was always so soft spoken & wld be excited to send homemade candy bars personalized by her & beautifully presented to the ladies at our annual Scrapbook weekends . Cindy was richly blessed to have such an awesome model & example of a quality human being in her Mother. Now Cindy carries her light 💡 & beauty everyday by simply being herself. Rest In Peace & may Gods light comfort Cindy & her family now. Karen Gray

I'm thankful for Paula's friendship. She was genuine, and made me feel special! Paula was funny and kind and she was a good listener. I met her years ago in a Bible study that also had an aerobic workout as part of the class. Paula told me how people couldn't believe how good she kept up! She was very happy with her flexibility! I think she was better than I was! Quite impressive! She made me a copy of a tape she used to work out at home to. I thought she was so thoughtful. She had such a warm welcoming way about her. She made me smile. Paula was, indeed, a blessing. The Lord has blessed her and is keeping her; the Lord has made his face to shine upon her and He has been gracious to her; the Lord turned his face toward her and has given her peace. He has put His Name on her and has blessed her.
