

Peter John Hanna

September 16, 1950 - July 27, 2021

HANNA, Peter John. September 16, 1950 - July 27, 2021. Age 70.

Beloved son of the late Cameell and the late Florence (nee Cavataio) Hanna.

Loving brother of the late Sylvia Adams, the late Grace (George Sr.) Arnold, Diane Edwards,

Shirley Nagel, Fred (Louise) Hanna, Cameell Jr. (the late Laurie) Hanna, Dr. Donald Hanna, Joy Hanna, Dr. William Hanna, Patricia Hanna, and Mark (Hildur) Hanna.

Cherished and adored "Uncle Pete" of his favorite niece, Jeanne-Marie Beaupre (Zac Ethridge).

Dear uncle of Wayne, George Jr., Alissa, Robert, Hanna, Adam, Elise, Cameell III, Carly, Sarah, Lauren, Zach, Rebecca, Audrey, Bo, Grace, Peter, and great uncle of 8.

Peter attended Our Lady Star of the Sea Grade School, Austin Preparatory High School class of 1968, and the University of Dayton.

He was voted "most likely to succeed"; participating in speech festivals and sports. Peter excelled in football, somehow always getting possession of the football and running for the winning touchdown. Peter excelled in math; he was exceptionally great with numbers which is probably why he enjoyed gambling. Peter was a fair minded person; he never forgot what he owed people and what they owed him. Peter loved his black coffee, vanilla ice cream, and his Wendy's Frosty. His favorite meal was spaghetti with meatballs. He loved starting his day with Shirley's scrambled egg sandwich in pita bread.

Peter and his 5 brothers celebrated their relationship with numerous fishing trips, often accompanied by his brother-in-law, George, and his nephews, Robert and George Jr. Peter was celebrated for catching the biggest fish, but they all told stories about their "biggest fish" that got away.

He was well known with the Mack Avenue businesses, especially the Irish Coffee and Mr. C's Deli. Peter was very social; he entertained us with his impersonations of other people and by making many humorous family references. He made friends with the postal workers, employees, Comerica Bank tellers, and customers.

He also worked at Pointe Auto Wash, the Carpet Store, and the Lochmoor Club. More recently he made himself useful by running errands and taxiing people around. He loved to drive his car, and used his driving to pay for his "lotto scratch off luck".

Peter was a kindly man, a generous, and a charming soul. He always found a compliment especially for the many women who looked after him.

Memorial contributions are appreciated to NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness), 4301 Wilson Blvd, Suite 300, Arlington, VA. 22203.

“ I was saddened to hear of the loss of Peter. Many fond memories growing up on Crane with Peter, Fred and Shirley. The Hanna household was a second home to all the neighborhood kids and Camille and Florence welcomed everyone. It seemed that there was always room for one more. My deepest sympathy to the entire Hanna family. George Mondalek
