“ Renee was my little flower girl at my wedding. She was a brave little girl and she fought very bravely throughout her battle with cancer. I am so sad right now for her family! I am happy she got to meet and be a grandma, albeit a short time. Now she is their Guardian Angel. She will be watching over all of you. God bless you all!

“ John and Family, I was so sorry to hear of Renee's passing. I told the guys I work with yesterday, she was a Traditional Polish Lady, the woman knew how to give the best hugs and taught her children this beautiful trait. Those "hugs" were filled with love and you knew it when she gave you one. I know your Momma was waiting with that beautiful smile on the pickup!! Thankful, God has you in his arms!! My sincere sympathy to the family, love you cousin!! Marie

“ I remember going to Renee's wedding what a gorgeous and beautiful bride she was. We went to the hotel on Fourth of July to let the girls swim and watch the fireworks. Now Renee goes home to meet her mother. My condolences to her family whom I know will really miss her. Rest in peace dear Renee.

Words cannot express the feeling I have right now as my heart is breaking. I remember meeting you in gym class oh about 45 years ago! We've had a friendship that has stood through so much...laughter, tears, joy, and many milestones. You're so much who I am...now you are free from earthly pain. Free from sorrows and feeling the arms of love with Jesus, your mama, Grandpa and so many who have embracing you and welcoming you home. Love you so much Nay Nay. This is not goodbye, it's just until we meet again.

“ Thank you Renee for all the words of wisdom and encouragement over the years and especially during my bad times. Sometimes the only way someone makes it through a day is with kind words from a friend and you helped me more than once, and for that I will always remember you. I'll miss you my friend. Fly high! 🥹

“ Ohhhh Renee - my heart is broken. Friends since the very early 80's - you were an inspiration to so many and an amazing friend. We could go days, weeks and years without seeing each other or speaking and pick up right where we left off. I will miss your spunk and your laugh and your pride you had for your beautiful family. We had SO MANY good times together. Rest well my friend. You will forever hold a special place in my heart.
