“ So sorry to hear this sad news, Chuck would drive by on Thousand Oaks and always wave hello! Sometimes he'd stop and inquire "how's the boy doing?" - always a smile, and always so friendly. RIP.....Zielinski family.

“ With heartfelt sympathy to his wife , sons, and family. Chuck we will miss you. He ushered with my husband Joseph at St. Thecla. Finding out his brother Ken is married to my cousin Sue, was a topic conversation. He really was a wonderful person and Joseph and I will miss you. He also volunteered one year at mcrest with us. Ken and Sue we are so sorry about your brother and brother in law. He really was proud of his family. Now he's with Jesus who he was always close to. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord let his soul and all the souls of the faithfully departed rest in peace.

“ To my BIG brother Chuck, before you were knit together in mom's womb, before you were even thought of by our parents, God Almighty knew you & called you into existence. He was there! The day you had your tumor removed by His surgeons, God Almighty was still there. The day you said, " I Do" to Carol, He was there. The day of your fall off the ladder, He was there! The day you breathed your last... He was there! He was there from conception, when He gave you breath. He was with you everyday of your Life. Enjoy His Presence, until I see you again... Tom

Please accept our condolences for your loss. Every time Chuck stopped at our house, he always asked how we were feeling. Although we didn't know him for a long time, we felt he was a real "people" person. It was very obvious how he cared for everyone. He was a real help to our son, Michael, who often spoke very highly of him.

“ I'm not sure what we are going to do at family events with all the extra food because you aren't there for the 2nd, 3rds, 4ths... ;) I will miss hearing my dad say "Charlie's here." Your pop up visits to the house were always good times and we hoped you had a deer / buck to show ! We loved your silly Donald Duck voice and I'm saddened my daughter can't hear it or get to know her funny and loving Great Uncle. We miss you already. Send our love to Papa, Grandma Torch, Joe and the rest of our loved ones ❤️❤️❤️ See you soon

“ Our thoughts and prayers for you Chuck and for Carol, Chris, Robert, Patrick and you grandchildren and all your brothers, spouses and all their families! I've know you for our life times. What a wonderful, kind, gentle, loving cousin and person! Myself and my family have been so very blessed to have had you in our lives. So many wonderful memories of times together. No matter the time, when ever we came to visit you would be there to say hello and spend some time with us! And our grandson remembers that you always had candy to share! You will be forever loved and forever missed. God has a special angel! Until we meet again!

“ Well Mr. Chuck:

I've known you since I was a child, and what a great experience it has been just knowing you. We teased each other, we laughed, we joked and now Heaven gets another Angel. We have memories that could put a laugh into even the most bitter, salty person. (Which are going to remain private) C'mon Chuck! "Either it gets taken care of, or I'm calling your mom" Chuck always had the last say, the last word, the last dance. The importance of you can, and will never be surpassed by any other individual. I love you and your family. I'm so happy you did not suffer. It isnt even a question or a thought to where you are now. I might not see you again, because I have alot of work to do. Hopefully your guidance will lead me to where you are. Love you Chuck!
