“ We’re neighbors from The Lake. We always enjoyed seeing Skip’s car parked by his place - “Skip’s up!!” And having a beer at the end of the day on the deck. Though he could make us feel a little guilty seeing all the work he could get done in a day. And never quite got his attraction to tractor pulls. A good man. A kind man. A man with his opinions who was willing and able to listen to another side. A man who obviously loved his wife and family and appreciated good friends. Particularly a younger guy who would get up on his roof and repair and clean the leaves off and then the two would go off on an adventure, (Maybe to a tractor pull). And his other neighbors would bring him food, do wellness checks and share their good times with him. It was a treat to know him and he will long be remembered here on The Lake. Joanne & Mae

“ Hello. I'm so sorry that you lost "Skip"! He seemed to be a very nice man. I'd only known of him just short of a year. I cleaned and helped him at his lake house. He loved tractor pulls and he was going to get his black classic car out a couple weeks ago for a show. He said he didn't know why he still has it, but he must have enjoyed it. I hope he did that! He was a hard worker right to the end! Neat n tidy! Never gave up. I'll miss talking with him. I wish the best to his family and friends.

We'll miss you Skip! Usually on your chair on the driveway in the evenings, waving hello and chatting with the neighbors. I felt Skip was watching over us and will miss our chats.
