“ Dear Sue and family, I was surprised to hear of Bob’s passing. Bob and my Dad, John Duch, worked together and Bob would sometimes come to visit at our home. I was a young teen and developed a crush on Bob. Years later at Judy and Tom’s my Dad was was there with us and he and Bob recognized each other not knowing that you lived next door. A connection was made that brought us all together. I’m very sorry for your loss. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Hugs, Sandy Tabacchi

“ To the family of Bob, I would like to extend my most heartfelt condolences for your loss. I worked with Bob at Ford and also did business with him when he worked for Triway. Good guy, well respected by his peers. Always a positive outlook on the most dismal situation. He had a way of bringing light into dark. Always a smile and a hearty laugh. Many lunches at "The Winetasters" or "Sixpence". May Bobs' soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in Peace. Amen. Dan Jendza. Ford Engineer (retired)

“ I had great memories of Bob from Grade School. The one from High School is my favorite. We were in a class with a teacher who couldn't control us, because he wasn't consistent. One moment he'd let us all talk, the next minute he'd blow up at us for talking. One warm spring day, the teacher got so mad at us, he told our whole class to stay after school in his home room. We are all in the room after school waiting and waiting for him. Finally Bob says, "I've got to go to work!" and climbs out the window! I remember thinking, "Good for him! That takes guts!"

“ Bob was always a bright light. You were never quite sure which smile you would get. Sometimes a big, happy smile and sometimes an impish “my wife has been sharing your stories” smile. He will definitely be missed. So sorry for your pain and loss, Susan. Big hug and prayers.

“ Sue and family
Still in disbelief and want to do more than send condolences via messages. Have so many great, wonderful, fun, memories and stories that I will treasure. Pretty sure Bob and Jerry are trading jokes and stories.
Sending all of you love and strength.

“ Sue, Carrie, Amy and Michelle. So sorry for your loss. Bob will be dearly missed by all who knew him. That is such a nice picture of him. I have so many good memories of times we spent together over our 60+ years of friendship between Len and myself and your Mom and Dad. Crazy Christmas parties in the early years, sharing births and weddings of our children, lunches, dinners, celebrations and even meeting up in Florida. May God bless your family and watch over all of you.
