“ Jan and Bob were a love story, having fun together, sharing a passion for golf, good times, and family. Jan, you tried so hard to keep him on this earth, but God wanted to take him home and end his suffering. My deep heartfelt condolences to Jan and family.

Bob was a wonderful brother-in-law, always there when we needed help to fix things. He would carve the Turkey every Thanksgiving. Most important was that he was a great husband to Jan and step-father to Laura, treating her as his own. We will miss him and his smile. Rest In Peace, Bob. We love you.

“ Bob was always willing to lend a hand and a smile to anyone who needed it, and a plan to complete the project. Will miss your wit, smile and great attitude.
