

Ronald Mario Catoni

September 29, 1957 - August 30, 2021

Catoni, Ronald M. August 30, 2021. Age 63. Proud father of Ronald Catoni Jr., and Lauren (Vanity) Catoni-Ellis. Former spouse of Patricia Catoni. Predeceased by parents James and Hattie Mae and siblings Jim (Karen) and Judi. Survived by siblings Rick, Rob (Dawn), John (Terri) and many nieces and nephews.

Ron had a number of hobbies and passions. He loved listening to and playing music, especially Led Zeppelin and other classic rock bands. He was a self-taught drummer who could frequently be found jamming with family and friends either at home or at public shows. Ron was also an avid reader and devoured books about history and organized crime. He was a player and spectator of various sports as well. In addition to being on his high school's baseball team, he regularly played football with family and friends. Ron loved watching and attending football games so much that he held season tickets for the Detroit Lions for many years.

Family was everything to Ron. He cherished the time he spent socializing with and taking care of his mother Hattie Mae and his grandfather Otto. One of Ron's favorite family traditions was the weekly spaghetti dinners hosted by his beloved sister, Judi. He also loved being a father. Ron took the time to support his children and engage with their interests alongside them. In his later years, Ron became a beloved member of his community, regularly brightening people's days with friendly conversation and a listening ear.

“ My Uncle Ron was an amazing man! I have so many wonderful memories but the most memorable were when my father was sick. I lived with him for awhile. My head was spinning, my heart was breaking and my world was ending. You know who helped me? My Uncle Ron. I was spiraling and he was there. He hugged me, he held me and he cried with me. I will NEVER a forget his compassion and I will NEVER forget his love. I felt some comfort through the worst time in my life. Without him I don't know where I would be. I love you Uncle and I will miss your kind heart. I am sitting here with pain in my heart but I know who you are with. You are hugging one of the greatest men of my lifetime! I love forever and always.

“ Growing up my brother Ron was a superhero type figure to me and my friends. He was cool, a great athlete, could play drums(don't ever touch em!), and he could bench press 400 pounds. Most of all he was kind and understanding. Later on he showed this kindness to my wife and my children and they hold a special place in their heart for him. While my heart is broken, my head is filled with laughter and great memories of a childhood and life he made better. I love you bro.
