“ Gosh, What a gentleman, loving friend, great husband, father, grandfather.... Anything you can think of about Ron, attach the word 'great' to it because he deserved it. Can't wait to see him again in heaven with Christ. Ron, pray for us.

“ Lisa and I send our deepest love to Rosie and the family. We unfortunately cannot attend the service so we want to send you our condolences and heartfelt prayers. Ron meant the world to us. He served Christ Community Church for many years as a founding Elder. I spent many years in the Lord's service with Ron. I'll never forget the two weeks we spent in China together ministering the Gospel. Ron was a faithful friend and brother in the Lord. His faith and joy will be missed. Our prayers are with the family.

“ Our hearts are so sad but knowing Ron is with Jesus is comforting. We first met Ron at his house. We went there after church one nite. What a time we had. Ron catered our wedding. His first wedding. Pork chops for sure were on the menu. The best food ever. He catered almost every event we had at our church in Troy. Everyone loved the food. And of course the kibbe was wonderful. I think Rosie had a hand with that. We just didn't love him for his cooking abilities. He was a true man of God. Even tho we lost touch through the years when you are brother and sister in Christ you can be reunited in a minute. Our love for Ron and Rosie never changed and never will. Our love and prayers are surrounding the family during this sad time. Love, Bernie and Cheri Fratt
