“ Sis we have known each other for 60 years. There are times when the right words don't exist. This is that time. I can only say. I love you.

“ My deepest sympathies to Sue, Joe and Angela and the Russo family. Growing up across the street Sam would welcome me over on all occasions, from tinkering in the garage to patio and porch conversations. He suffered my pestering while I learned a great many things from him that I carry with me today...including how to chase out a nest of skunks from the neighbors bushes! I feel blessed to have known him and wish you strength and comfort during this difficult time.

“ I would like the Russo family to know that my heart and prayers are with you at this time of great loss. I have so many memories of Sam and his family it's hard to choose just one. Our families were next door neighbors from childhood through my college years. I thought of Sam as a kind of gentle spirited big brother. Probably the most prominent memory I have of him was the day he and Sue were married and what a great time that was had at the reception. We now know that he is with his parents and will keep a watchful eye on us all. So to you all, my sisters Linda, Paula and I all are holding you close in this difficult time.
Love to you all, Lori Lennier Krefman.

“ Sam was a good hearted person, I will never forget when he was working at Lamb's and I would go up and see my dad and asked where is Sam and my dad would say he is in the bathroom hiding from working . I always thought it was funny.

Our superman! Met Sammy at lamb in 1990. We've been great friends ever since. I don't think I'll ever meet a more stroger person than Sam. He went through so much from his heart attack, his heart pumps, to his transplant. He had some kind of rare virus, which to this day, I can't pronounce. Suzie and I called it an Italian dish something like linggweenie. Sam was a great friend and I will miss him dearly. I would never have have been able to put up with all Sammys setbacks.Sam was truly my Superman.
