“ Sara was my first supervisor at my first "real" job at Randazzo's, when I was 15. She was Head cashier and I was a bagger. Later, we would sing a certain song from The Doors, to each other, EVERY time we bumped into each other. I saw her last at a mutual friend's wedding, where we caught up quickly like no time had passed. Her sharp, sassy wit will never be forgotten. May she rest in peace.

“ Words cannot express how sorry I am to hear about Sara's passing...Sara and I shared many great memories throughout the years whether it was hanging out with the Red Wings (And of course Sara riding on the zamboni multiple times at the games...Lol) Our mutual love of the band Journey, Our trip to Bahamas where she talked the ship director into letting her do a reenactment of the scene from titanic!

Our trips up north, Our mutual love for cooking and of course Sara's late night request for me to make chicken parm or spaghetti (which I always whipped up back in the day)

Some time had passed since I talked to or seen Sara but out of the blue she contacted me 3wks ago to send me a copy of our old workout video we made... She said she wanted me to have a copy... I giggled and thanked her...I was very thankful to have that unexpected contact with her! I will always cherish the times we spent together even though I feel she deserved much more time than she was given...

May God bless and comfort everyone who loved Sara...God speed my friend...

“ Darling Sara...beautiful soul, beautiful child, beautiful woman. It was easy to fall in love with Sara. Her great smile, sharp wit, & sassy charm captured my heart many moons ago. Sara & my Heather became fast friends & cohorts at Switzer Elementary. Sara was quickly welcomed to the family as my “third” daughter. I have many warm memories of the girls...(Katie too when allowed) having sleepovers, playing with makeup, swinging outside in the sun, or jumping on the trampoline, then off to 7-11 for slurpies.

Precious times to ever hold close to my heart. We pray our Loving Lord cover all family with healing & peace during this time of great sorrow. May angels cover & guide Sara on her journey toward the light where she will watch over us all as a “Shining Star”.

*Love always & God Bless,

“ My heart breaks for the entire family. I will miss seeing Sara riding her bike to 7-11 for her beloved slurpy as well as talking to her at the fence. She was a true light in this dark world and is gone way too soon. Prayers for strength to everyone lucky enough to have known her. ~Wendy ~

you were my sister. We didn't always get along but when we did it was good. You were definitely one of a kind. The life of every party. You would and could make anybody laugh and always did. You loved hacking into moms Facebook 😏 You were very artistic you loved to cook and bake (and not clean up) 😭 You loved dogs(Kevin) animals, your friends, movies, music, (JASON MRAZ) going out to different restaurants, most of all you loved celebrating all the holidays. Your birthday is going to be hard this year. It falls on your favorite holiday which is Thanksgiving. I know you will be there with us as I make your favorite turkey dinner. Just like the one year you made the turkey and destroyed my kitchen LOL. You made a huge impact on so many peoples lives. You loved so many and so many loved you. Sara you are a true legend . People will be telling stories about you forever. You will never let anybody forget you because nobody could. Christian and I are completely heartbroken. 💔 We love you and always will! We will always remember the special moment we shared with you. You are now at peace and you will be in our hearts forever. Till we meet again sister bear 💜

“ Sara,

From the moment I met you I knew we were going to be best friends. I loved your spunk, movie/celeb knowledge, your homemade turkey dinner you would make for me and of course your cupcakes. I loved getting a txt from you letting me know the latest Oreo or whatever candy was out and knew I'd be rushing out to find it.

Words cannot express how much I'm going to miss you. I am broken. I love you so much, may you RIP and be pain free until we meet again ❤️

“ Throughout life, we encounter so many guardian angels, and Sara was definitely one of mine. We only hung out a few times, and I knew her through my best friend, Jeremy. But we were both those crazy dog moms....you know, the kind that treats their dog as if they are equivalent to a human baby.

My dog passed away due to a super unfortunate accident years ago, and I was devastated. I literally hit this deep dark depression and didn't want to get out of bed. Sara saw my pain and reached out. She shared a story with me from her own personal experience, but she also made me believe again. Through her words, each day started to become a little easier, and she gave me hope. This completely random angel made me believe that I could get through my pain.

Sara, may you have no pain anymore. I know that you're reunited with your childhood dog that passed away. And that story you told me about how all of your loved ones who have passed away before you were waiting to greet you once you entered Heaven's gate. But that they can't get to you because all of your furry friends who passed are rushing through the crowd to get to you first. Well, I know that your childhood dog that you spoke of is there with you now. And that the two of you are reunited. And that you're there with my Duke too. I love you and I will never forget your kindness

“ To Crystal and your dear family, I cannot imagine what you are going through. Please know you are all in my prayers. Take comfort in Jesus's words. 'Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in Me. There is more than enough room in My Father's home. If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with Me where I am. And you know the way to where I am going.' Sara ran into Jesus's loving arms. HE welcomed her home. One day you will all be together again. Love, Ann Drewek

“ Sara without the h, thank you very much, was my messenger buddy. We continued to share outrageous memes and stories to make each other laugh. Sara said I was her spirit animal and she was my little Pierogi. She was fiercely loyal, loved her family, worshipped Kevin, knew everyone's name, and immediately connected with you. Terry and Dolores are embracing her now. Sara, please pray for all of us. You will be missed.
