“ Scott had a very kind and loving heart. I can remember things he did for his neighbors like giving them rides to Doctor appointments and helping out whenever he could. After his Dad passes he started taking great care of his Mom with great dedication and love. His little dog Buddy brought him so much joy and was loved so much. Thank you for your kindness and may you rest in peace.

“ Uncle Scott was a great and generous man. He loved cars and I always remember him sharing that passion. Whether it was the many conversations about the cars we owned, the times he helped me fix my truck, or even when he let me drive his Corvette (which was awesome!), his love for cars was rivaled only by his immense knowledge of them.

It is so difficult to have lost him, especially so young. What gives me comfort is knowing he's in a better place, happy and healthy, and likely working on cars with Papa. I am fortunate to have known Uncle Scott, and wish that my boys got to know him better. He will be missed dearly.

“ Aunt Diane and Bob,

It just breaks my heart that Scott is gone so young. There are so many childhood memories with all of us being together, celebrating holidays, spending the night, going apple picking and so many more memories. Last Easter Aunt Diane and Scott came to my house for Easter and it was just a beautiful day. The love Scott had for his mother was like no other, they supported and cared for each other in all aspects of their daily living. Bob, your love for you brother is clear and you would do whatever you could to help out and I know just how giving you are as you've helped my family any time we've needed it and he always spoke so highly of you. Scott's life had many medical challenges but I never once heard him complain, his kind and gentle voice will be missed. Sending hugs and prayers for the entire Butler family as they navigate through this difficult time. Please don't ever forget the love he had for you and for all the joy you gave him Aunt Diane, Bob, Cheryl, Laura, Katelynn, great niece, and great nephews. May you rest in peace Scott.

“ No one is ever prepared to hear about a loved one's passing. This was especially hard considering my Uncle Scott was still so young. He gave everything to taking care of my Nani and Papa, and then just my Nani after my Papa passed away. He was so thoughtful and would light up around my two boys and my sister's kids. You could tell he really enjoyed seeing them and giving them gifts and bags of books. Both my boys are so sad about Uncle Scott, especially during this time when we can't be with family. I hope he is smiling with our Papa looking down on us knowing we will all be ok. <3

“ Uncle Scott will be greatly missed by all of us. Not only was he there while I grew up and spoiled my sister and I all those days we spent at our Nani & Papa’s house but my kids absolutely loved him. Every time we’d see him he’d have boxes of books for them and he even made special trips to get toys and bring them over. He loved seeing the kids play with them. Bentley said in his prayer last night at dinner that he already misses Uncle Scott and will miss seeing him. Rest In Peace Uncle Scott you will never be forgotten
