“ My name is Heid Dharte. When my husband was at Vista Springs during the summer of 2018, Sharon and I became acquainted. I was immediately drawn to her because of her warmth, her smile, her kind heart and her creativity. We shared many memorable visits with faith, family and crafts at the forefront of the conversation. She had such unshakeable trust in God - and thus was joyful inspite of her trials, always displaying that "attitude of gratitude!" Although I did not know her for very long, she made a lasting "footprint on my heart!" To this day I cherish the tissue holder which she had made with the beautifully crafted word: "Peace!" May you rest in peace, dear friend!

“ I never really knew Sharon that well, She was the oldest of Grandma Bacons grandkids and I was the youngest. I remember her having a party when I was real little where they put saw dust on the floor so they could dance. I think Sharon and Lee's wedding was the first I remember going to. One thing I do know for sure is Sharon was one of the smileist people I ever met. She also was very sweet and a great Baker. Her and Lee did have some fun Holiday parties and I am sure they are happy to be together again. In recent years I know that she was real proud of her kids, and grand sons. I loved her and she will be missed. Your Cousin Terri

“ Sharon Hunter was my neighbor for about 32Years. She and Lee were both the best neighbors you could ever ask for. They loved their 50's doo op and romantic music. I turned on the 50's radio station in my car today in memory of both of them. I could always go over to their house to sit and chat for awhile, ask for advice or just sit and listen to the music. I always remember Lee saying "always have a little money in your pocket"...in other words, save for a rainy day. Sharon was so talented in everything. I could go over to her house with the girls and she would teach us crafts. Sharon always loved having her picture taken with the kids for homecoming or prom nights. I have many of those pictures.

Lee and Sharon were like grandparents to my four children. They were very good to them and my children loved them both.

Our world lost a gentle lady yesterday but heaven gained a beautiful angel. I can see Lee and Sharon in each others arms dancing together to their favorite song.

I will always remember my friend with the special moments we shared.

Love you Sharon.

“ I remember all the holidays at their house. Later in life I was blessed to have Aunt Sharon and Uncle Lee as my God parents. I chose them because they both followed in the teaching of Jesus and were so involved in the church. I know that she is at home with Uncle Lee, grandma and grandpa and my dad. I will not mourn her passing but celebrate her life and home coming to eternal life in heaven. I will definitely miss her.
