“ I such very fond memories of Sharon. Sharon and my Mom, Lil, would stand at the fence or the two would sit at our kitchen table talking for hours. Sharon and my Mom were sitting on our front porch waiting for my first date with John, my husband. She always had a smile or laugh to share with us. My love to each of you as you mourn her.

“ Mom was the God given definition of love, kindness, generosity, honesty, loyalty, and selflessness. We were blessed beyond words, and she will forever be our best friend.

Thank you, God, for giving this beautiful earthly angel to us to brighten our journeys.

“ My name is Cindy Milligan Vandelinder. Sharon (and her husband, Richard) were my Godparents. There are a few things that stand out in my mind about Aunt Sharon.....I remember receiving a Little Red Riding Hood / Big Bad Wolf cloth doll from Aunt Sharon and Uncle Richard when I was much, much, much younger - it was different, because if you flipped the skirt over Little Red Riding Hood's head, underneath was the Big Bad Wolf!!! I STILL have this doll - probably almost 45 years later!!!

Also, I remember one time going to Port Austin with my family and stopping at Aunt Sharon's house and kidnapping her and my cousin Rob! SURPRISE!!!!!! It was a fun time!!!!!!

And one more thing I remember is when my mother, Norma Milligan (Richard's sister), and I would go to church on Monday evenings, we would often stop by Aunt Sharon's on the way home for a visit. Many times she would have peanut butter balls that she made. They were awesome!!!!!! It was always nice to visit with her.

Aunt Sharon was always so sweet and welcomed us on our surprise visits. I will miss her and will always remember her full-of-life laugh!!!

She'll always be in my heart!!!

Love you all and miss you!!

Cindy
