“ Dearest Tom. We've been thinking of you all day as you settle into your forever life in Heaven. We want to tell you that you were one of the kindest and most gentle and generous souls that we have ever known. I hope these little memories will make your family smile as you watch over them. We met you on a snowy Sunday morning when our car was stuck and we couldn't go to church. You offered to give us a ride and we started a lasting friendship. Jennifer was just a bouncing bundle of joy and Bernie would often go over to your mobile home across the street to ask if she could come out to play. Our children grew up together and we had so much fun camping and boating. You were Bernie's best fishing buddy and we loved the fish that you cooked up for us. Melissa and Chantal loved horses, real and plastic ones. They were everywhere. You left us too soon but we will meet again because we have faith. Watch over your beautiful family. Give them strength. Rest in Peace. Love from Paula, Bernie and family.
