“ Susamma aunty, Asha and Anish - we grieve with you all and will miss Kunjumon uncle a lot in the coming years.

As Blessy and Anish shared during the service, while growing up I, when we met him during holidays in Kerala, he was always the scary uncle. But in his later years, he was such a jolly person to be around! Maybe, it was "becoming-a-grandfather-affect"!

Although we haven't met most of you for many years, whenever we could go to Kerala in May, we would often see Kunjumon uncle and he updated us how all of you were doing back in the US. He was the family envoy we met almost every year representing you all. Last year when we met him, he told me that he was going to come back to India and live here. But God had other plans and His plans are always better than ours. We will miss him a lot and hearing about all of you through him.

Thanks a ton for making the viewing possible; to hear you all and share in your grief. God willing, we will be around to watch the funeral too. May the God of all peace fill you with His peace at this time. Miss you all.

“ *" Lord make good mem'ry of the faithful departed
Who consumed Your Holy Body and Living Blood
Make them stand at your right hand
On that day Your glory dawns"*

I met Dear Kunjumon uncle 15 years ago and we were very close to each other since then. He was very active in our Parish- St.Gregorios Malankara Orthodox, Rochester Hills, Michigan and served as the Parish Trustee for 5 years, Parish Managing Committee Member for several years and Malankara Association (known as the Parliament of Malankara Orthodox Church) member for 5 years. I was very fortunate to work with him as Parish Secretary for 2 years and in Parish management committee for few years. We will always remember his dedicated service and commitment to our parish. He was definitely a family oriented and community oriented person.

Our heartfelt condolences and prayers to Susamma aunty, Anish, Asha & all other family members. Our great hope is in resurrection and "we will meet him again on that beautiful shores".

with love and Prayers,

“ Kunjumonchayan you will be missed a lot for our family , you went so soon, we can't see your smile can't talk to you or hear your voice, when ever we see each other as family really enjoyed a lot, going to miss, as family we know each other last 8 yrs. You kept a close relationship with our relatives , visit them during your vacation back home, it is not going to happen again.. Really hard for all of us. Even though you are not in this earth but you will stay in hearts for ever. I don't know what we will say to Nolan and our little girl when they ask about Detroit Appacha. Kunjumonchayan you rest in peace . Sure you are in heaven relaxing. Let God Almighty comfort each one of us. Susammamma ,Anish & Nisha our heartfelt condolences during this difficult time.

“ Dear Anish and Nisha,
You were blessed to have a father so special and caring. His memory will live forever. Thinking of you in your time of loss. May the lessons your father gave you last a lifetime.
May you always feel his presence in your heart.

With so much Love,
