“ I'll always remember seeing Tim the first day at CYO, wearing a yellow V-neck sweater and a welcoming smile. Being away from Detroit was easier knowing I had people to remember back there, and people I might see again. I'm deeply sorry for his passing, but I also believe that his faith and loyalty assure his presence with the Lord. We WILL meet again. God bless those who loved him most, who are left behind. Be confident in your faith and let it ease your sorrow.

One thing I can say about Timmy is that he treated everyone equally, with respect and friendship. Tim was friends with everyone and everyone was a friend of his. He will be sorely missed. God bless your family.

“ When I think of Tim I think of bowling banquets the most. Time he bartended with my dad & then polka'd with me on dance floor. Once I stopped spinning I was good. Great guy! 🤔

“ Best laughs of my life I had with Tim. Cannot forget dancing at Vernier's in New Baltimore, hanging out at Lucky's on 8 Mile, Cruise to Buffalo, N.Y. aboard the S.S. South American, Polish festivals and so, so much more. Nobody enjoyed friends and life as much as Tim seemed to. And so many of us enjoyed Tim as well. A great loss to us all.

Pat's and my prayers for peace and strength for his whole family.

So many good and fun memories. Tim was such a card. We remember after bowling in the Downings league, we would go in the bar for a nightcap and someone's drink always ended up with Tim's eyeball in it. He was a great friend and loved by all. RIP Tim.
