“ Aunt Ginny was my mom’s only sister and they were very close. Because of their “Sisterhood”, I feel I got to spend more time with her. I remember staying overnight at their place as a young girl when my parents were away and having a lot of fun. As a young mother I have a fond memory of attending a Mother Daughter banquet with my daughters, my mom & Aunt Ginny at my Sister-n-law Day’s church when Day lived on the east side of the state. I always felt that side of the state was like another universe - lol 😂. Also have great memories of all the Luttenberger Family Reunions at Aunt Ginny’s Condo Clubhouse thru the years. Aunt Ginny was such a lovely lady and dear to my heart, she will be missed. 💕💕
