“ Dear Mary and Maureen, even though this is a bit a late i am so sad to hear of the passing of Bill. I have fond memory's of Bill as well of both of you when you lived next to us all those hears ago in Warren. Maureen, you were very young when you moved from Warren, you probably don't even remember me, but as a young boy i kind of consider you a little sister and i distinctly remember you and Mary spending several warm afternoons enjoying our pool while Mom and Mary talked. Bill was a very kind man and always had time to talk with me and just be the super nice guy he was. I really missed him after your move. I am so sorry for your families loss. Mary, you were one of the sweetest gals And i have never forgotten that warm smile of yours. Bless you all , Jim and Tracy Maximiuk

“ What I recall most fondly about Mr.Greenway was his outward and demonstrative adoration for his family! I have the most vivid memories of him at field hockey games cheering his girls on and always offering a supportive hug after a win or a tough loss. Please receive our deepest condolences. We will keep all of you in prayer during this most difficult time. Ursula and Claudia

“ As a coordinator at Interfaith Volunteer Caregivers for ten years, Bill Greenway quickly became one of my favorite volunteers and ultimately a good friend. Bill provided transportation weekly, mainly to medical appointments for seniors and handicapped adults who couldn't drive themselves. And he did it with patience, grace and respect for all people. Whenever we chatted about upcoming assignments, Bill would say “Give me your most difficult ride.” It didn't matter who was in need or how far or how long the appointment was scheduled. I always knew Bill would be on time and provide the best care and concern. He truly lived his faith. I was also lucky to get to know his wife Mary, simply by chatting on the phone.

More recently I joined St. John & Paul parish where I found Bill and Mary were dedicated members. They welcomed my husband and I and showed us around the church, introducing us to members, staff and key programs. There our friendship grew. Mary, Lou and I send our deepest condolences, and we know your faith will sustain you. We will miss him, but are comforted knowing he is in Heaven. Rest In Peace, Bill.

“ Bill will be terribly missed by his many friends who enjoyed the friendliness and wit of this man. Bill and Mary were part of our 'breakfast group' on Sunday mornings, and we solved many 'world problems' and shared many laughs in that group. He had a personality and charm about him that truly endeared him to his many friends. My sincere condolences go out to the entire family.

“ (Son-in-Law) Chris here...

Bill was such a shining example of what being a part of family was all about. It was fascinating to hear hours long discussions at the dinner table of family and friends both current and past. He genuinely cherished both, and was always so eager to hear new updates on old friends, tell you stories of someone he talked to recently, and always.... and i mean always... honor the precious memories of all who had entered his life....his entire life. You would be truly amazed at the joy in Bill's eyes as he shared all of his memories, and the love he gave and received with his loved ones.

Grampa Bill... loved his girls Georgia and Rory... and loved watching their reactions to life. Bill gave 1 year old Georgia her first taste of ice cream... and reveled in watching her response to such a wonderful new taste. Bill was proud watching Georgia and Rory during gymnastic performances. Bill and Mary never missed an opportunity to share in a grandkids school event, and made each event special no matter what.

As his son-in-law, Bill taught me patience..... as was sometimes helpful in riding out a particularly descriptive memory around that dinner table. :)

*Bill was very, very intelligent, as well as a considerate thinker and ponderer of life. It took me years to figure out what he would try to tell me in discussions... without actually coming out and telling you straight out. if you know Bill, then you know what i mean. "are you saying...." not exactly. would be Bills response looking off in the distance with that Bill expression on his face.*

I love and respected Bill and the wonderful person that he was. A wonderful Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Friend.

God Bless you, Bill. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ I always enjoyed Bill's insights at Adult Faith Formation. And several years ago he helped us out when my husband and I went on vacation. Bill picked up our son from his job so we managed to get away. I will miss him.

“ I knew Bill best through our MCREST volunteer work at SS John and Paul Parish. Bill was a regular Transportation team driver and was always available to help guests, always cheerful. I valued his friendship and mourn his passing.
