“ I met Bill several years ago. He would often come to Caniff Service Center ( DTE ). Bill would make certain that he visited all areas and spoke to everyone to find out what their needs were from MC. He was always very cheerful and humble at all times. The employees especially looked forward to his visits during the Christmas season to receive the calendars that were very,very useful and the BEAUTIFUL POINSETTIA'S. Bill was a very nice guy, always concerned about others. I will truly miss him and I and certain others will as well.

Sincerely

“ I served with Bill with 127th Maintenance Group at Selfridge Air Nation Guard Base for many years. Bill was always the very professional in his military duties, and set a positive example for the rest of the troops to follow. Not just that, Bill was an all-around good guy. May God bless the Mullaly family during this time of loss.

“ I first met Bill’s wife Julie when we both worked at J.L. Hudson’s in Port Huron. It’s a friendship that I have valued for over twenty years. I soon learned that if Julie was your friend so was her family. You couldn’t ask for a more fun loving group! When my husband Jim and I first met Bill, we agreed—that’s one good guy. Our opinion has never changed. He could fix anything and often offered to do so. He was an amazing wood worker. He served his country proudly. But most of all he loved Julie and raised two remarkable children. When the grandchildren arrived, I rarely saw him without a little one on his lap. He will be missed by so many. This week the world lost “one good guy”.....

“ I will never forget the twinkle in "Mr. Bill's" eyes and the little smirk of a smile when sharing a laugh. He was truly one of the great ones and will be deeply missed by many. So many good times playing cards, volleyball and swimming with all the people lucky enough to be friends or family of Julie and Bill. I hope that Mike and Bill share some giggles up in heaven 💕💕 Prayers for strength and the ability to focus on all the good memories to your wonderful family.
