I will always remember Andrew. He was an old friend of mine that holds a special place in my heart. He always had the funniest sense of humor and was very quick witted. I can just see his face with a 1/2 smirk and almost silent chuckle when he said something that topped whatever it was that you said . My favorite thing about him was that he always kept it real! Life just moves so fast that before we realize it we are all off on our different paths. I may not have seen Andrew in years but I always hoped our paths would cross again. I would have loved to sit down with him and hear all about his life. It hurts to know I won't have that opportunity . I take solace in knowing that over the years he had made his way to Christ and that all of his dear and closest friends were there to witness Jesus's work in him! Thanks be to God! To Andrew's family, I'm so deeply sorry for your tremendous loss. Please know that Andrew touched so many people and truly left his mark. Andrew, you really are one of a kind. A TRUE "OG". I hope you get to set up Fat Andy's up there. Even Heaven should have a Coney Island!! Love you forever friend and forever is in my heart

“ Expressing deepest condolences to the Watts family. I knew Andrew through the Malow and Eisenhower years, and was fortunate to have him as a roommate in the dorms at Western. He was always cheerful and had a welcoming presence. Andrew's ability to make others laugh and feel included will be deeply missed.

“ I was lucky to have known Andrew and call him a friend. I am going to miss his kindness, sense of humor, and good nature. I'm also going to miss golfing with him on his Thursday league as a sub when one of his great friends couldn't make it. Tee it high and let it fly my brother...til our next round.
