“ Frank and Ida are among the last remaining original neighbors from when we moved in a couple doors down back in 1991, so we were deeply saddened by Frank's passing.. Lora and I enjoyed whenever Frank walked down the fence line to check out our vegetable garden and share his gardening tips or just to chat about goings on for a minute or two. One of my favorite memories is from years back when Frank, beaming with pride, shared with us Ida's freshly prepared zucchini flowers- which we had never tasted before. Incredible! Such a simple yet lovely summer delicacy. Frank had a strong work ethic. Rarely saw him relaxing- he was always tinkering in the back yard garden and keeping busy. Same thing in the winter -even in to his 80s- he was one of the first neighbors out clearing the snow! God Bless you, Frank- you were not just a wonderful neighbor but a family friend. Rest in Peace. Our condolences to Ida and the rest of the family.
