“ Anita was born in Sant’Elia Fiumerapido, Frosinone, Italy, in 1933, and as a child lived through WWII. Her family had to flee there home and lived in a cave during this time. Her 7 year old brother Gaetano and infant brother Carlo passed away during this time. At 16 she traveled to Scotland alone to work as a domestic for 6 years. She arrived in the U.S. for the first time in 1956. In 1959 she traveled back to Sant’Elia with her wedding dress and rings to marry Marco who was stationed in Bamberg, Germany. They lived there for a year in an apartment above the “Schick family” whom we are still in contact with. She lost two full term babies, Francis 1960 and John 1962 and had Francis in 1961 and Gerarda 1964. Anita has generously shared a lifelong love of nature, gardening, cooking, talents in seamstressing, knitting, and floral arranging. She loved to travel to the USA, Europe and locally especially up north. to be continued.

“ Dear Gerarda and Francis,
Accept our deepest condolences for the passing of your mom. We have so many wonderful memories of your mom and dad in the 1970's when we spent time in Traverse City at your cottage. We will never forget the hospitality that we received. Your mom was a truly beautiful woman inside and out and we were so lucky to have known her. May God hold her in His arms and may you have the courage and strength to carry on her legacy. God bless your whole family. Mike and Angela (Macera)Notarangelo.
