“ I have known Tony for a long time, probably first met him around 1986 when I went WWMS, and then later when I worked at Eastside Sports on Schoenherr in the 90’s. Tony would come in wearing all his different hockey jerseys and we would always go to 711 or he would off to go for us if we were busy. Tony’s favorite places at that time were the Schwinn bike store, Buscemi’s, Eastside and 711. I think my best memory of Tony was the time myself and another friend took him to the Detroit Tigers vs Chicago Cubs at the old Tiger Stadium. Rest In Peace my friend you will be missed.

RIP Tony! I remember him in the neighborhood in the 80’s and 90’s. I grew up in Warren Woods school system as well. He lived riding his bike. We used to play roller hockey at the middle school he would stop up and visit. Prayers and you will be missed
