“ Tony was my American twin. We met on our birthday many years ago. My wife Kathy and I were at the Irish Harp pub in Niagara On The Lake in Canada, celebrating my birthday. Tony and Mary were sitting next to us. We were thrilled to learn that they were there celebrating Tony’s birthday as well. That night started a friendship that meant so much to us. Since then, we have met there on October 28 to celebrate our birthday, interrupted for a few years by Covid. I am going to miss you always, my brother. Thank you for the happy memories. Kurt, your Canadian twin.

“ Anthony was one of my roommates at the frat house. He was always trying to teach me some Italian sayings, which I can’t repeat here. May God hold you Mary and all your family members. Love and prayers.

“ Mr. Randazzo was a regular client of ours at the bank and he was always so kind and the love he felt for his family was always so endearing. Just before he passed, I helped him with concert tickets for his grand daughters and he kept me updated on the whole process of surprising them. He was just beaming with love and happiness to be able to surprise them and it warmed my heart. He also always commented on my smile and always returned it with an equally amazing smile! We will truly miss Mr. Randazzo and his bright energy, may he rest in paradise. Condolences to the family, he was truly a treasure and just know he treasured you all too!

“ Tony was a dear friend, neighbor and Cheerleading parent with us -- we go way back. Our daughters were part of a childhood three-some that the neighborhood parents called "The Three Amigo's" - namely Jenna Randazzo-Murry, Lindsey Delahaye-Glazer (our's) and Jackie Haney-LaGreca. There were lots of shenanigans and neighborhood parties! We miss the recent years of lasting friendship also. Tony was one-of-a-kind along with his partner-in-crime (Mary) who always lovingly gave him a side-eye when he got to teasing a bit! Rest in peace friend. We sure will miss you and your kind heart and quick-witted humor! We know you'll be watching over us all! Til we meet again!! ~ Linda & Rich Delahaye
