“ Growing up on Young Street we could not have asked for better neighbors than the Tamer family. We share so many wonderful memories of days past.
Our hearts go out to you at this sad time. Tony was such a good guy, they don't come any better. Even though we don't see each other often now, please know that you are all held close to our hearts and always in our thoughts.

Much love, peace and healing,

“ I am a friend of Tony's sister-in-law Ann Marie. On the occasions that I saw Tony he was always friendly. We probably got along because he had another Lebanese person to talk to. Rest in peace Tony.
