“ Nino was an incredible neighbor and a true friend. From his side of the fence, he always made sure to check on us and made sure we never went without fresh vegetables from his garden every summer. My kids loved him just as much as their own Nonno. Leaving such an amazing neighbor behind was one of the hardest parts of our decision to move from Masonic. Our prayers are with Guy, Jerry, and the rest of Nino’s family as they learn to navigate this new world without such a wonderful man.
