“ Auntie~

In about 2 hours you will have been gone for one week. I still can't believe that! Life is just not the same without you- I miss you so, so, so very much. I try to take peace in knowing that all that suffering is done for you and that you will NEVER have to be afraid again. The mortal side of me and my heart just wants you back. I know how selfish that sounds. I want you to know how very proud I am of you for trying to make yourself well- you tried even though it was so hard for you. I know that you were not ready to go but I know that you are happy and hanging with grandma- and all the animals. Keep close to us- I need to know that you are there as I will always be for you. I love you Auntique! Don't EVER for get that!!! XOXOXOXOXOX

“ Dear Barb - Even though I wasn't mentioned as a niece to you, you always made me feel like I was. I want to thank you for always thinking of my kids and me as if I was part of your family! I will miss you very much - I know I didn't see you a lot - but I always like coming to the shop and hanging out with you for a little while...and Dang it I just ordered Avon from you on Friday - Now what? We love you Barb...R.I.P.

Love always, Joe, Tracie, Megan and Andrew

“ Dear Mike & Nora and Achs family,

I was so sorry to hear of Barbs passing. I remember how fun it was to have lunch with her, and your mom for everyone's birthdays. May you and your family find comfort in your memories with her. I know that losing a sibling is heartbreaking but memories help keep them close. Lean on each other, tell stories and smile and she will always be right here. Luv u both. Lisa and Jim.

“ *Sister, aunt- loved by all.
Words can't express how much you are missed. We know you're in a better place and we are blessed to be a part of your life. "Auntie and Andy" will always be a part of our Christmas.*

Love ya,

John, Patti, Jason, Sarah, Lindsay, Megan, Keith, Emmie and Eilah

“ Barb- I know the Lord takes us when its our time, it just hurts because we all want to get one last hug or hear one last "love ya." It was such an honor to know you and to be able to see the joy and love radiate from the huge smile of yours! You will forever be missed, but right now you are probably with your mom and all the other loved ones that have passed, and I'm sure your looking down on us and grinning from ear to ear.

Take care of my baby boy Maxx and his girlfriend Daisy and let them know we miss them and look forward to reuniting with you all when its our time too!

Love ya!

Kelli xoxo

“ Barb, Barb, Barb, Just wanted you to know that I miss you so much, I know being your favorite brother-in-law that you loved me too. I just wanted you to know we thought about you everyday. We would always say you know who would be good at this or Barb would know, lets call her, you have a big impact on everyone's life. We will all have that big hole in our hearts because you are no longer with us on earth. I just wanted to say thank you for giving me a little part of your life here. You made everyone feel very special. No matter how special you made us, we know that you only had one really one special person. Who was your rock, and you trusted her to the end that is Julie, Barb please help her with your warm and wonderful smile you have. You are special to all of us but we know Julie was the special one to you. Well you have fun being with your mom and all your pets (even little Mauri and Taffi) but don't forget us little people and touch us every now and then. Sure we may cry, smile but when it happens we know you dropped in to say hello. We will take that moment in time and remember you always. However, keep looking over your shoulder because one day you are going to hear the gates kicked open and this voice saying to you, Hey what's for lunch. Love you Barb and will always be thinking of you. Looooooooove ya ❤️ and R.I.P ..Chuck

“ *My Dear Friend Barb,
My heart is broken. I cannot imagine a life without you in it. Every memory of you makes me smile, from our regular Euchre games that drove Marilyn and Kerry crazy because you and I weren't "serious" enough to the night you guys were trying to convince me I was in labor with Laura and I thought you all were crazy. (She was born the next morning... Joke was on me!)
I am so blessed to have spent your birthday with you, sharing love, laughs, and memories with you and your big, crazy family. They all love you so much. It was so clear that you are their rock, the glue that holds them all together. I know that you are in a better place with no pain and no limitations and I'm sure your beloved Mom was there to meet you. Rest easy now, my friend. I love you and will miss you always.

“ *Barb I never thought I would be writing this to you but no words can express how I feel except a part of me is lost, my heart is broken. I'm sorry I was so hard on you sometimes but I just wanted you to get better and to be there always. I know that you know that I loved you so much, I just wished I was able to tell you one more time, and to be able to feel your hug and hear you say Love ya . I will miss our talks, I always knew I could call you up at anytime and tell you whatever was on my mind. Your smile was contagious, and always thought the good in people. I know that you are so happy with Mom up in Heaven and surrounded by all the animals. The only thing that gives me comfort is that you are up there in heaven with Mom, walking and pain free and when it is my time, the both of you will be there with open arms welcoming me home. Love ya ❤️ -
