

Brian Edward Doyle

February 8, 1962 - April 12, 2025

Brian Edward Doyle.

Brian, only 63, passed away at home with his brother Mark by his side. He lost a hard fought battle with cancer that took him in less than a year.

Brian was born February 8, 1962 to Wayne and Barbara Doyle in Detroit, MI.

He grew up in Sterling Heights and Brian excelled in school work. Always graduating at the top of his class. He loved to read books, lots of books.

Achieving high standards in high school. Brian was appointed by the Governor of Michigan to the Navel Academy and he graduated in the top 3rd of his class there, went on to serve in the U.S. Navy Nuclear Submarine Force and Pentagon, receiving many ribbons, awards and commendation metals. After serving in the Navy, Brian got out and attended the University of Michigan receiving a MBA, concentrating in finance and corporate strategy. He worked for the IRS until his passing. He loved to read books, fish, play cards, gamble. He even had a stint at Motor City Casino supervising many gambling tables. It was easy and fun. He was easy going and a help you if he could type of person.

Surviving is his brother Mark, aunts Pamela Maiga and Phyllis Wolanin and many cousins. Brian was predeceased by his parents Wayne and Barbara Doyle and grandparents Bill and Alice Wolanin and grandparents Melvin and Dorothy Doyle, uncles Jim Maiga, Bill Wolanin, Tom Doyle, cousin Dennis Doyle and many others.

“ I’m blessed to have crossed paths with Brian, if only briefly while we were both in 24th Company at the Naval Academy. We called him “Bee Bop” for his distinctive walk. I remember Brian being upbeat, energetic, funny, and having an infectious zest for life. Thankfully, after 40+ years, there’s probably no trace of our “recon raid” to the top of the clock tower in Mahan Hall late one night over Spring Break. Somehow, no one caught us scrambling through one of the windows into the building. It wasn’t a recent song but for some reason he and I sang “Rocket Man” a lot during that Spring Break, maybe because no one else was around to tell us how bad we sounded. I remember Brian boldly wearing non-regulation undershirts with his uniform, and maybe even self-tailored undershirts to stay cool. The details are fuzzy but I vaguely recall a funny incident (to us) of Brian getting in trouble over some snarky comments he wrote on his laundry chit after receiving subpar service the week before. I remember him going all in during field ball, morphing from a mild mannered, easy going student to a fierce competitor with a passion for winning (unfortunately, that wasn’t enough for our win-loss record). I can see him proudly sporting his “birth control” glasses, and I hear his boisterous laugh. It’s impossible to capture all that Brian was in a few lines. The best I can do is to share my sorrow at his passing, sadness that only comes from the loss of someone responsible for so many fond memories. My life has been enriched by knowing Brian and my thoughts of him bring a smile to my face and make me feel young again. My prayer is that God will comfort Brian’s family and the many others, like me, whose lives he brightened. We’ll miss you Brian. Dave Petitt

“ To the Doyle family... please accept my condolences on the loss of Brian as your brother, cousin, & nephew and our loss of him as a friend and member of our Naval Academy family. My name is Mel Hamner and I am the current President of the U.S. Naval Academy Class of 1984. Although Brian & I were in the same battalion, we were in different companies and different academic majors so I did not have much interaction with him. Nevertheless, it always saddens me when I learn of the loss of a classmate and, as part of my official duties, I have to inform our class accordingly. Our thoughts and prayers remain with you. I have attached here Brian's formal and informal pictures from our Class of 1984 yearbook.

“ I was a company mate of Brian's at the Naval Academy and his roommate at nuclear prototype in Idaho and at sub school. While in Idaho, it was a sight to see three fresh Ensigns in Yellowstone Park searching for moose by calling "Moose!" and trying to get close to the elk. Needless to say, the moose and elk had more common sense than us and stayed far away. Brian also had a unique way of walking (the up and down pogo stick style 🤪) and he had a unique style of announcing, "it's Taco Tuesday!" when the upperclass would do a run out in town when we were at USNA. He was an avid fan of the Detroit Tigers and Corvettes and would let you know about it! He also played a mean hand of Euchre! You will be missed but rest easy Brian, your tour is over. We've got the watch now.

“ As a member of 24th company, the one and only time I went “over the wall” was with Brian and another 24/84 man. We jumped the wall, retrieved a bottle Brian knew of, and I learned about lick, salt, sip and suck the lemon. We then walked a mile or so up West street to the 24 hour Dennys for breakfast. I’ve missed Brian since graduation and I will always regret not doing more to touch bases. RIP Brian.

“ I was also in the 24th Company with Brian. I remember that he seemed to never have to study and still did very well. He was a good guy and helped make the four years there a little more bearable.

“ I was with Brian in 24th Company at USNA in the class of 1984. I remember just after graduation I drove up from Tennessee to visit Brian and see a Tigers game, which they won by the way and that same year they went on to win the World Series. Brian was a great classmate and will be missed.

“ Brian and my Mom, Victoria, met 26 years ago, when they were working at Motor City Casino. In that 26 years the two of them shared a beautiful and love filled relationship where they not only had true love, but also were best friends. For me, he was not only a dear friend but a father figure and some one I knew I could always count on. He was so smart, always knew most of the answers on Jeopardy and he was one of the most honorable, decent and kind human beings I have ever met. Brian, I will miss you with all of my heart, and I am, and forever will be, a better person for having had you in my life.

“ Brian, you fought valiantly, never complained, took what was thrown on you and dealt with it best as possible. Beat some of it and then the incurable, which devastated us. With no hope of getting better, you wanted this over. I helped you best I could and tried to take your pain away and let you pass with dignity and in peace. I will miss you Brother, see you in the next one. Ma and Dad, all the other passed relatives will warmly welcome you in. Mark

Mark, I write with a heavy heart and am saddened to hear of Brian's passing. I want to extend my condolences to you and the entire Doyle family. Brian was a bright, intelligent and funny human being that I'm sure will be missed by many. He and I shared many great times together as adolescents, especially our 3 week high school road trip to California. I will never forget that trip or the fun times that we had together. Know that I will pray for Brian and your family during this difficult time.

“ I remember watching Brian & Mark play little league baseball and was very impressed, loved being there and wished they were my older brothers since my brother was so much older than me. I also remember collecting golfballs that strayed outside the club near their grandparents condo. Brian also drove a fast car when he got his license and street raced with me in the car which was both thrilling and very scary. I always looked up to Brian as a very smart, accomplished & interesting cousin. Brian, you have gone ahead of us to a glorious reunion with so many of our family members who are all loved and missed. I look forward to reuniting with you in the future and know you are another Angel now watching over all of us here in this world.

To the family of Brian,

My name is Johnny, Brian and I met, and worked together at the IRS. Brian was quite intelligent and influential. I effectually referred to him as Young Learned One, since I was the oldest one in the office. I had inquired about him often, then one day he showed back to up to work. I expressed to him how much he was missed. Now I sadly found out he passed away. My deepest condolences to Victoria, and the rest of his family. Respectfully, Johnny McDaniel- April 30, 2025
