

Carla Marie Hicks

January 20, 1952 - February 28, 2022

HICKS, Carla Marie

February 28, 2022. Age 70. Cherished mother of Lauren Brown and Kehly (Thomas "Gus") Remillet. Adored grandmother of Declan Brown. Beloved life partner of Gerald "Jerry" Hicks, Jr. Loving sister of Rick Wagner, Lynn, Elyse, and Tony Wagener. Dear daughter of Fred Wagener and Joan Wagener. Carla was full of life and was the epitome of strength both in mind and spirit. She was a mother, grandmother, aunt, partner, and a beautiful soul. Everyone who met her was blessed with a loyal friend who would be there for anyone, no questions asked. Carla was a retired nurse and a devoted caretaker to many friends and family members throughout life. Carla was an athlete and was captain of every team in high school. A love of sports continued as a theme throughout life with much time spent on the golf course, and she was a devout New York Yankee fan. Most important to Carla was her family. She was proud of her daughters, was best friends with her grandson Declan, and cherished time with her nieces and great nephews. Her humor and love of life made everyone want to be around her, and gave her the titles of "Fun Aunt" and "Fun Nanny". Carla will be missed by all who had the pleasure of meeting her. “ We had the privilege and honor of meeting Carla when she came out to Colasanti market . She came when we had no help to unload the spring shipment of flowers. Rick and sue wrangled up their friends and family to help us. She was a real hoot! We worked long and hard days but laughed all day long with that FIREBALL!! We oooooed and ahhhhhed about all the different flowers and which ones we had at home. We always looked forward to having her come out because it was always so much fun! Thank you all for sharing her with us !!! Our deepest sympathy to all of you for your loss .

“ Carla and I met the summer of 1970 ; we sat a Lifeguard tower together and she introduced me to all her Centereach friends and I the same to my friends in Smithtown. That was one of my most memorable summers. Carla later married one of my good friends Jerry . We all stayed close even building houses next each other on the river : Carla was such fun person to be with ,she had a great sense of humor: I am so glad I got the time I had with her : Carla I love You ; Rest In Peace : Bob

“ Anyone who knows Carla is touched by her. Athlete, Dancer, Bodhisattva.. She is a Force of Nature. Always there to offer friendship. Quick to have a laugh and give support. There are a few people that remain indelible in our lives. Carla is that in mine. I feel blessed to have had her friendship.

“ Carla and I did gymnastics together many, many years ago as kids on Long Island. She was 3 years older than I but she always watched out for me and made me feel loved. We were a small group of 5 in a private setting and she was my favorite. Always full of laughter, love and kindness. Although we lost touch as the years went on I find it so sad to learn that her beautiful life has ended. Reading her obituary however assures me that her love continued and lives on in the lives of her children and family members. She has left a legacy. My sincere condolences to her family, her partner and close friends, and prayers for comfort and peace to you all as you pass through this difficult time.
