

Carolyn Gray Miriani

August 24, 1968 - February 14, 2017

Lifelong Grosse Pointe Farms resident Carolyn "Carrie" Gray Miriani (nee Morse) passed away peacefully Tuesday, February 14th at St. John Hospital surrounded by her family and friends. She was 48 years old. She is survived by her three loving children, Maddie, Lilly and Phoebe; Dennis Miriani; Her Father Anthony Jenckes Morse Sr, and his wife Pamela; her brother Anthony Jenckes Morse Jr; and her longtime companion Daniel O'Connor. She was pre-deceased by her mother Susan Gray Garlinghouse. Carrie was a dedicated mother whose children were the light of her life. She cherished her role as their mother, and was immensely proud of each of them. She enjoyed each moment that they spent together, and their presence gave her much strength. She had a zest for life that was evident to all that came into contact with her. Carrie was known to all for her joyful spirit, and her grace in dealing with adversity. She was a devoted friend and lit up any room she entered. Aside from her Grosse Pointe community, she loved to spend time at her riverside cabin in Wolverine, Michigan. It was often a gathering place with friends and family. The river gave her much joy. Carrie was a longtime member of Tau Beta, and the Grosse Pointe Garden Club, and enjoyed serving them both. Memorial services will be held March 11th at Christ Church Grosse Pointe. Visitation will be at 10 am, followed by a memorial service at 11 am. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Christ Church Friends of Music Fund (www.christchurchgp.org), or the Tau Beta Association (www.TauBeta.org).

“ I didn't know Carrie personally, but I know several people who did. They all have the same memory of her, Carrie was loved by everyone she ever touched. For all those who knew her I send my deepest sympathies. I seems that everyone she knew was touched by her. From all the people I've talked to, she appeared to be an angel down here on earth!
