“ From the moment we walked down the aisle together to make our First Holy Communion, Chris became a lifetime friend. We laughed and talked and made memories together, growing up Polish on the same street. We shared tennis at Georgia Park, sunbathing in our backyards, trips to Belle Isle, Notre Dame dances, bus rides to Cass Tech, and Friday night Polish school. As adults, together we experienced all the milestones, joys, and tribulations of life. Chris, I will miss you. But you will always live on in my heart.
