

Christine Workman (Szczepanski)

February 24, 1959 - November 21, 2025

Christine "Chris" Workman (Szczepanski). November 21, 2025. Age 66. Proud and loving mother of Nikole Vinch, Justin Vinch (Maria), and Casey Szczepanski and Nana of Aleesia, Micaela, Brendon, Adelynn, and Olivia. Dear daughter of the late Norman and the late Catherine Workman and dear daughter of Dean and the late Carole Freck. Sister of Lorraine, Norman, Bob, Mary, Joe, Vincent, Therese, Carole, Cathy, Janice, Barb, Dottie, and Dean. Chris was proud to be Irish and loved her career working with her patients as an occupational therapist. She had a goofy sense of humor, got a kick out of a good dirty joke, enjoyed finding great deals at thrift stores and watching Lifetime movies. She had a deep unwavering love for her family; she was especially proud to be a Nana and loved spending time with her family more than anything else in the world. Visitation Saturday 3-8pm with a 6pm funeral service at Wujek-Calcaterra & Sons, Inc., 36900 Schoenherr at Metro Parkway (16 Mile), Sterling Heights. “ When I think of cousin Christine, I forget the tragic circumstances of her sudden death, and remember the beautiful, charming, feisty little girl that she was. She was the 5th of 8 children, as our Nana also was. Christine often managed to wake up in the night when her parents were having a late night snack. Once, when I was sleeping over to babysit the next day, Christine came downstairs & complained to her parents that there was a “big fat hog” in her bed. She then got to enjoy Chinese food with her parents. (It was a full bed because her older sisters were also sleeping in that full-size bed!) Another time, young Christine looked up from playing dolls with my brother Johnny & said: “When I grow up, I’m going to marry cousin Johnny!” This Thanksgiving Day, I am grateful for the gift of Christine in my life, and all the memories of her! She was a light of Christ in the world! Love you kiddo!

“ I have been replaying so many memories through my mind. When Michael and Chris were married everyone thought she and I were sisters. And in our hearts we were. She took pride knowing she was the only one I wouldn't fight to comb my hair when I was younger. And she was with me for many firsts. First concert, The Jackson victory tour. First person to know I smoked cigarettes back then. Lol First rum and coke. And I'll never forget her trying to teach me to drive a stick shift car. Mom was standing in the front door and Chris and I in the car looking like a bucking bronco jerking up and down the driveway. That fantastic deep laugh Chris had echoes in my mind. She was crying laughing so hard. Through the years she would send thoughtful reels and texts to stay in touch. She snuck to my house and left a painted rock with a message on it to bring me a sweet surprise. She was just the kindest, good intended person filled with joy even when in the midst of not so great circumstances in life. I never saw her angry. I could go on and on with memories... And I will cherish them all. Forever my Seester Chris. So thankful to have had you in my life. Nikole and Justin, Maria and kids were all here for you. God be with you. Hold on to those beautiful memories you have of your Mom. What a special love to call your own forever. Love you so much.
