“ I work with the Center for Latino/a and Latin American Studies at Wayne State and knew Citlali well when she was a student here, 2019-2024. She participated in our program, earning a minor in Latino/a and Latin American Studies in addition to her B.S. in Public Health. She was a strong student, very passionate about her education and community. We were so proud of her when she shared she would be working for the Washtenaw Health Dept. She remained in touch with us as an alumna and offered to support current students through mentoring and volunteering. Beautiful person inside and out. I am sharing a photo of her from summer 2019, right before her freshman year at Wayne State. She voluntarily took classes over the summer to get a head start...that's how dedicated she was! We will miss her and send our deepest sympathies to her family.

Concí a Citlali cuando era estudiante en Wayne State, 2019-2024. Fue parte de nuestro programa estudiantil en el Centro de Estudios Latino/as y Latinoamericano/as y se graduó con un B.S. en Salud Pública y una especialización adicional en Estudios Latino/as y Latinoamericano/as. Citlali era bien estudiante y muy apasionada sobre su educación y comunidad. Estuvimos muy orgullosos cuando nos contó que estaba trabajando con el Dept. de Salud de Washtenaw. Ella mantenido en contacto con nosotros como ex-alumna, expresando un deseo de apoyar a nuestros estudiantes porque ella agradeció el apoyo de nosotros. El foto es de 2019 cuando participó en un programa de verano, tomando cursos en Wayne State para estar preparada. La extrañamos mucho y les deseamos paz a su familia.

You brought so much love, laughter, and light into my life, and I’ll carry that with me forever. I wish we had more time, but I’ll cherish every moment we shared for the rest of my life. I love you always. P.S I already knew to share all my Lali approved pictures!! I know my fashionista would’ve loved seeing these. 💕👠💎🎀👛💕🙏
