“ With great sadness I am writing this about Clara. She was the most wonderful woman I ever met. She was loving , kind and welcoming. I think of the times I brought my parents to Detroit to visit and we have wonderful memories. She will be deeply missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. With love Anna D’Amario-Tracy

“Clara was very special who will be remembered with love. She was so warm, caring and devoted to her entire family. Over the years, our families shared so many beautiful memories together in Michigan and New York....Countless hours together without sleep reminiscing and laughing about old times in Italy. She was an amazing old-world cook and baker. Her love, warmth and kindness touched all of our hearts. When God made Clara... he broke the mold. Love - Michael & Valerie D'Amario”

“ I would like to send our condolences. Reynaldo and Clara were great family. As a young adult, I remember all the times they would visit us in New York. I also remember visiting them in Sterling Heights. Reynaldo and Clara are in the loving arms of one another and our good lord. Joseph S. DeMartino, son of Salvatore & the late lola D'Amario DeMartino. I would also like to empathize how much my grandfather and grandmother, Ceasar D'Amario and Cesidia Malizia D'Amario loved you! May god comfort and love you all at this difficult time.
