“Had a great conversation with Uncle Clem about a year ago and still remember his visit to my parents (Joseph and Miki Krause) in Bisbee, Arizona many, many years ago. Particularly recall what he said the next morning: "Geeze, I woke up and here was this big mountain right outside my bedroom window"
With fondest memories and deepest condolences.”

“To the entire Krause family, my sincerest condolences on the passing of your father. I had an opportunity to spend time with him at the De La Salle football game at Wayne State. He humored Kelly and I all night and shared some crazy off the wall DPD stories older than I've been alive. You guys are truly blessed to have had a super kool dad. RIP "Clem".”
