I will surely miss my beloved cousin. She was so generous of time with her support and always smiling. Connie had spirit and she was always there with just a phone call. I am so sorry that she won't be around to visit. I am going to miss you. I pray that you are sitting at the right hand Our Lord.

*Really gong to miss you. Connie gave me strength when I was down. But know that you were not just a cousin, but, a great friend,
Love you, Carol*

“ My deepest sympathies to David, Steven and family. Connie was such a dear friend to me. She provided refuge from the chaos of my Mon passing as a kid, and is remembered as love, warm affection, and fun all wrapped up in a spitfire's soul. Rest, sweet Connie. Your life was lived well. I will love and miss you to the end of my days.

“ I've known Connie since she lived on Gainsley Drive and I was 5. She was there for me when mom died when I was 20, when I got married at 21, when my daughter was born at 25 (and was her Godmother). Connie was there for every major life event and birthday. I will miss her terribly, but she will live on in my heart...

“ We offer our deepest heartfelt compassion and sympathy to you David and Steven, and Mary (and Jim) and Carmen (and Kathy) and to all of your loved ones and all those who adored your dearest Connie.

Connie and I began a friendship at the “celebration of life” for an uncle, that grew with each passing year. On that occasion, Connie reminded me that I’m a Tuzzolino and that this entire family is my family too! I will always be grateful to Connie for welcoming me into my grandfather Sam’s side of the family, that day.

Connie’s kindness shined brightly through her beautiful smile, loving ways and generosity. She was always eager to help everyone, especially family...Alla famiglia!

I will cherish the time we spent together and our many talks, over lunches at a local diner. I am a better person for having connected with my sweet second cousin Connie and will miss her sparkle and pure zest for life and family. She was a keeper!

May you Rest in Peace dear cousin after a life well-lived, as a friend to many, and as an excellent servant to our Lord.

All our love,
Sherry & Rich Wiegand and family
