“ My memories of “Mrs.Cindy.”
I (Angie Hojna) and My sister (Donna Hojna), would go over to the house, in the summer time, as little girls did back then, knocking on the door, saying, “ Sharon, Suzy, Sandy, can you come out to play?” Mrs.Cindy woul come to the door, let us in the back yard, to play with her daughters.
Mrs, Cindy, would be laying in the sun, watching all of us girls, swimming in the pool splashing and having fun, with our floaties on... many good times in the 70's, at her house.
I also remember seeing her, in her corner yard garden, an planting flowers in the front yard.
She was a nurse for many years, and helped many people.
She was kind, and funny, along with her husband, Mr.Eddy, who was always in the garage fixing something.
I always remember her giving popsicles to all the girls, that came over in the summer.
And her daughters, Sharon, Suzy, and Sandy, “Carrot Top” (my dads nickname for Sandy”) were the funnest girls to play with on the block!
She always had a beautiful smile on her face.
And a laugh you could never forget!
My dad (Theodore Hojna) and my mom, ( Carol Hojna) loved to talk together, on her an Eddy's front porch, an we're great neighbors.
She will be missed.
I am deeply sorry for the family's loss, a will be praying for the family. These are my fond memories, of Mrs.Cindy, and they will always be with me.
