“ Tom & family - I'm sorry to hear of Uncle Cliff's passing. I have wonderful memories of him and the laughter we all had on holidays at Grandma and Grandpa Michalski's house. He was always smiling, laughing and making holiday get-togethers special for all. God Bless you, Gina, Lori, and your families during this time. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. “ Rest in Peace, Uncle Cliff! You were always so kind and hilarious! I remember spending Sundays on the phone with you and Annie complaining about the Packers! You will be missed! So sorry I can't be with my cousins on this day of your funeral! I am there in spirit. God rest your soul! Love, Maria Colosi Cochran

“ Clif was a man of honor and faith and he was the loving husband of my dear sister in law for over 50 years. She loved him above all others and has been waiting for him above. Her love for her was matchless and unwavering. I know he'll be feasting with the Lord and his Annie and our family who have gone on before us.

I remember his cherry trees (and pies) and his sense of humor when we visited for their 50th anniversary celebration.

Love and prayers to Tom and Gina and my gal Laurie. Love aunt Lisa and uncle Joe Colosi.

“ Dear Tom and Kitty;

We met decades ago at your house, when your dad's mother's brother's and sister's family would visit each other during the Christmas holidays. Your mother would sit at an organ for sing along Christmas carols.

Clifford's mother and my dad (Joey) were brother and sister. They were the loudest and most comical ones in your great grandmother's family. Clifford and I were at least 15 years apart so I didn't know him very well but, in later years he reminded more of my father than any other member of the family because he also looked like my dad. Their personalities were however, very different.

From time to time I would return to the States to visit my family and on occasion would meet with Cliff and Annie at family reunions. I enjoyed their conversations. They were both very genuine people.

I'm sorry for your loss but, I know that, in time, you will look back with fond memories. Tom and Kitty, you were indeed blessed with great parents.

“ Our Condolences to Daniel Clifford's family on his passing.

Cliff was my cousin that I admired and loved. He loved polish tradition and enjoyed cooking. He was very knowledgeable and could construct or fix anything. He was "the man" for J.L. Hudson for many years. Served in the Navy on a Submarine and met his Maryann on leave in Virginia.

He was always very cordial, humble. and had a special gift of listening with his heart.

He will be missed by his polish cousin's and all who crossed his path.

“ Tom and Kitty, so sorry to hear of your recent loss. Having known you two for over 40 years, I can only imagine what a great man he was. Tom, he must have been so proud of the man you have become, any father would be. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family.

“ I was always comfortable at the Michalski home. I remember the Christmas he brought home a Santa Clause outfit from Hudson's and played Santa and the many bargain outfits he brought home for his children. He was a jack of all trades and would try anything. Loved both Anne and Cliff, they were great people. Sarah Gerardy
