“I have worked with Dan many many years. we had some great times. I bailed out of GM in 2004 Just heard about his death and it really shook me up. He was AwESOME. I am so so sorry. I will look further and if you are doing anything in his memory I would love to contribute. I have so many fond memories of him. Still in shock but I thought I would write a note and tell you how sorry I am and he was much to young to pass. My sincere condolences”

“I'll miss you Danny!! You have been in my life longer than most people other than my sister and mom and dad. You were always there for me especially back in the crazy high school days! I will never forget you and how kind you always were to me. I will also always remember you and that crazy long army coat you used to wear and that you were one of the original whopper floppers. God Bless you Danny and May you Rest in Peace.....I will Miss You!!!!”
