

Darleen Pallach

January 18, 1952 - May 5, 2024

Darleen (Salter) Pallach of Macomb Township, Michigan, passed away on May 5, 2024, at the age of 72. Darleen was a devoted spouse, mother, and grandmother. She made sure that everyone knew how proud she was of her children and grandchildren, and always supported those she loved, often sacrificing so that her family could achieve their goals. Her passions were cooking, baking, shopping, cleaning, and walking her beloved whippets. Darleen loved folk music and classic rock from the 70's, with James Taylor being her favorite. Darleen is survived by her husband, John, who was the love of her life, as well as her daughters, Alycia (Justin) Wesley and Tracy Pallach, grandsons, Jackson, Harper and Easton Wesley, her twin sister, Marleen (Paul) Smith, her brother, Michael Salter, as well as many nieces and nephews, and her dog, Tesla. Darleen was preceded in death by her parents, William and Geraldine Salter, as well as her sisters, Sharleen Salter and Kathleen Cademartori, and her beloved whippets, Willow, Cooper and Kaila. Darleen will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Visitation will be held on Sunday, May 19th, from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., at Wujek - Calcaterra & Sons Inc., (Shelby Township), 54880 Van Dyke at 25 Mile Rd. Please share memories with the family at their online guestbook at WujekCalcaterra.com

In the words of James Taylor:

Oh, the sun is surely sinking down
But the moon is slowly rising
So this old world must still be spinning round
And I still love you

So close your eyes
You can close your eyes, it's alright
I don't know no love songs
I can't sing the blues anymore
Oh but I can sing this song
You can sing this song when I'm gone

It won't be long before another day
We gonna have a good time
And no one's gonna take that time away
You can stay as long as you like

Only close your eyes
You can close your eyes
It's alright
Oh, I don't know no love songs
I can't sing the blues anymore
Sure but I can sing this song
Yes and you can sing this song when I'm gone

"You can Close Your Eyes"

“Dar always amazed me at how good she was at finding the best deals, decorating her beautiful home, making the best cookies and sharing the recipes. Always was ready to play euchre. You are going to be missed by so many. Heaven has gained a new angel.

“*Dar,
Our cousin, and our neighbor for many years. We had lots of fun on Sheffield watching our kids grow and at the many family gatherings we both had.*

You were my home "decorator" buddy and the one that taught me all about getting the best deal! And, you made the best cookies!

John, Alycia and Tracy... Our love and sympathy go out to you all and your family. We will miss her and the name "Dar" will never fit anybody else so perfectly....

“ Dar, my friend, my brother's wife, my sister.
These are my favorite memories: Camping trips, Decorating advice, Recipes shared , Margueritas, Candy making, Euchre, Vacations (Florida, California, Georgia....), Bidigare Picnics, Memorial Day Parades, Holidays, Birthdays, Kids, Grandkids, Tea...
Jay and I have so many memories of time we all spent together.
Rest in peace.

Love,
Patty and Jay

Heartstrings

When those we love go away, they never really leave us; they are with us now, wherever we are. Those whom we have cherished, live on forever; for love wraps itself around the heart. Although it's difficult now, someday beyond our tears and all the world's wrongs; beyond the clouds and all that we can see and touch, we shall all understand.

“ I am deeply sorry, to hear, of the passing of Darleen Pallach, i was a neighbor of the Pallach, in a newly developed sub, in aprox., 1970's when we all bought in a new subdivision. Im so very sorry, to learn this news. Praying for all Darleen's loved ones, especially, John, Alycia, & Tracy. So many wonderful memories, of those years. We were all so young.
