

David Collins

March 27, 1947 - June 7, 2026

COLLINS, DAVID W. age 79, of Eastpointe, Michigan, passed away on June 7, 2026.

David was born on March 27, 1947, in Detroit, Michigan, to George and Alvina Collins. He spent his life in the Detroit area and was known for his strong work ethic, love of cars, and the friendships he built throughout his life.

David worked for Ford Motor Company for 30 years. Outside of work, he enjoyed working on cars and racing them, a passion that reflected his hands-on nature and love for anything with an engine.

David was especially close with his brother, Kenny. Their bond was one of the most meaningful relationships in his life and remained important to him throughout the years.

David was preceded in death by his parents, George and Alvina Collins; his beloved wife, Kristine Collins; and his brother, Kenneth "Kenny" Collins.

He is survived by his son, Shaun Collins; his sister-in-law, Karen Morrison; and many friends and cousins who will remember him fondly.

David's memory will live on through the people who loved him, the stories shared about him, and the lasting mark he left on those fortunate enough to know him.
