“ "Deb we came to say our Good Byes and share many stories. You have touched so many life's in many ways with your work and kind soul. I hope that you can now see all the people that you have touched in your life time. The list could go on and on. The best part of it is that you were just being yourself. I am very blessed in my life to have had many years with you and learned from you. I thank you My Dear Sweet FRIEND. You pushed me to finish my degree and attended my graduation and cheered me on. A friend you are and one that will always hold a special place in my heart and life. Today I said Good Bye for now. We will meet up again and have many more memories to share and make. Love and will miss you Rest In PEACE DEBBIE." ”

“My deepest sympathy to the family. Debbie and I became friends in high school. We were also roommates in college for a while. We had some great times. We lost touch over the years, but reconnected several years ago. I wish we could have had more time together. I will never forget her.”

“Deb, life is so short. I just saw you walking your pug Princess and to think a few days later you are gone. You have been a great neighbor and the bond we both shared when we would be outside walking our beloved pugs. Rest in peace, god gained one special angel.”
