“ Seeing as Diane is my cousin, we could say I have known her for quite a few years. I did not get close to her until we became friends on Facebook. What a character she was. There were things that she would put on that could be so sassy and funny, she always spoke the truth.

I talked with my cousin Paul about her passing, and we can honestly say we will miss all of what she would put on Facebook. She had a lot of good stuff. So I hope that her husband, sisters and children do not mind if I go into her Facebook, and share things she from her.

With Diane life was never boring. Think of all the fun she is bringing up to heaven being with her family and friends, I'm sure they were all excited to welcome her.

My heart goes out to her family, she will be thoroughly missed. God bless you all! ❤️

“ I have so many memories of Diane, it is difficult to pick just one to share. Here is one that I to this day laugh aloud when I remember it.

It was Halloween 2002, Diane and I had taken Haley and Autumn out for Trick or Treating. Diane and I were yakking and yakking as we walked down the street, Diane never noticed her neighbor in the tree ready to scare the cr#p out of us. I noticed but didn't say a word. He jumped out and Diane screamed. We laughed and laughed.

We all will miss her more than words can say.

For now when I think of Diane, I am going to see her in Heaven with her Mom, Dad, Sister and her best friend Maureen. Of course her and Maureen are driving everyone crazy with all the yakking and yakking.

Sending you guys prayers.

“ my heart is heavy for you and your family during this time. I pray God wraps his hands around all of you, bringing comfort and strength. what a great woman she was.. we personally haven't seen each other in years. but she always reached out to me on posts no matter what it was and always looked forward to her posts and comments! back when I was younger and around personally, she always treated me like one of her own kids with a smile on her face. that woman loved some wine and spaghetti ♥️ prayers to the family and Haley - if you ever need a friend please feel free to reach out to me. I got you always girl!

“ I have so many memories to share. I'd say the first one that I'll share is our Mother's Day tradition. Every year I'd take her to get flowers for the yard. She's always tell me I'd get her too much. She never noticed that when she'd go to look at another type of flower I'd sneak in a few more when she wasn't looking. Loved to garden, HATED to weed! I miss you dearly mom.
