“ I Was so sorry to hear about Uncle Dom. I am praying for him and all the faithful departed over the next several days. Also my cousins Big Carmie Rosie, Beattie Dominic, and Frankie.

Lots of Memories of seeing every one on a pretty consistent basis in Warren Uncle Dom and Aunt Nina on the corner, Aunt Mary and uncle Yanno and the Camaratas all on Iroquois Drive. Mostly the Noogie that Uncle Dom would greet me with when we visited. My Mom and Dad (Patsy and Johnny) had so much respect and love for the Basilisco's Hard working close knit families. I miss them all. Aunt Nina and Uncle Dom Visited me several times in Florida and made it a point to attend my Wedding in Naples. Along with Aunt Mary and Uncle Yanno. I even named one of my sons after Uncle Dom. He has turned out to be a hard worker too! Go figure. I will be Praying for al you guys over the next few days. Love you all so much cousins....

Billy and Anita, Mariana, Teresa, Vito, "Dominic Sebastiano" and Sophia DiMercurio.

“ My deepest condolences and sympathies to my cousins---- Big Carmy, Rosie, Beattie, Domenic, and Frank. My memories of Uncle Domenic "Uncle Mego" were all good. I remember how he used to say stuff like, "Hey, you guys!!" always with force and a facial expression you couldn't forget, yet he did it with such kindness. And I can never really forget when Uncle Mego used to jokingly call me "CARNIE" or "CARNY" instead of Carmy. Don't know what it meant, but the way he said it was ALWAYS funny. Uncle Mego was as cool an uncle as anybody can ever ask for. My mother (Maria Rose), myself, and the rest of the Consolino Family in Florida and Michigan will forever remember the good times with Uncle Domenic, Aunt Nina, and their kids (our cousins) ----Big Carmy, Rosie, Beattie, Domenic, and Frank). God bless you, Uncle Mego, and I'll be looking forward to seeing you on the other side in Paradise.....
