“ *""Our thoughts and prayers go out to my Auntie Anna and Family.
My Uncle Don was a great man. I have always admired him and looked up to the way he was as a husband and father. He taught all of us by his example. When I was younger, I remember the stories my Uncle Don and parents would tell of the fun things they did when they were younger. As I listened Uncle Don seemed bigger than life.
He is a hero to me. Thank you Uncle Don for the great example of what a man should be. Love Nick Barraco and Family."*

“ *"To the family of Donald Moore, Sr.
We are so deeply sad of the passing of Don. He was always such a giving, generous man of his time and talents. We shall always remember his kindness and help throughout our beginning years of struggle with the restaurant business. The family was so important to him. He was tough when needed to be and so very nice always to Jim and myself. We extend our condolences to all. He shall be missed. His short journey here on earth is over, and the most beautiful one eternally is his now. God bless all.
